

Building heritage skills through travel

This grant is for young craftspeople with an interest in religious built heritage wanting to travel to increase their expertise and knowledge, ultimately benefitting heritage skills in the UK. Two awards of up to £500 each will be made in February 2020 to young craftspeople showing the most innovative and enthusiastic approach to learning heritage skills, and with the clearest idea of how their own knowledge and future career in heritage will benefit from the award.

The grant will cover the following:

- Attendance at conferences or seminars.
- Study tours.
- Short-term internships.

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be under 30 years of age on April 1st 2020.
- Be studying for a relevant craft or traditional building skill*, or recently qualified in one.
- Have a demonstrable and ongoing commitment to religious built heritage through a track record of relevant volunteering and/or study.
- Be prepared to disseminate themselves what they learn through social media and also to provide photographs and a short report to the trustees, which may be published online and in any way by the foundation.

Applicants are asked to complete an application form, describing how they meet the criteria, include an outline of their travel plans with a draft travel budget and attach a CV.

The award must be used to support the applicant's main expenses in direct and demonstrable connection with heritage learning and be used before 1 October 2020.

*This might include wall-painting conservation, carpentry, stonemasonry, glass work, furniture restoration, textile conservation, traditional roofing skills, ceramic repair and gilding, among others.
